

Thoughts for the Week

Paul at his Prayers: There are enough prayers strewn across his letters to give us material to work with. That in itself is suggestive. Prayer and letter writing go hand in hand. Perhaps Paul is setting us an example at this point. Perhaps he is saying: 'Letter writing is a ministry. If, somehow, it can be intertwined with prayer, it can be a powerful ministry.' If our hearing apparatus is tuned in carefully, we might overhear him as he prays. 'Hush, hush, whisper who dares? Paul the Apostle is saying his prayers' – to misquote A.A. Milne.

Donald Coggan, Archbishop of Canterbury, 1974 – 1980.

Children are encouraged to come to the front of the church for the "Children's Focus" and then leave for their classes, returning during the Peace. The youngest (newborns to two years old) can use our "Noah's Ark" room (just off the side of the church) under parental supervision.

INTERFAITH OPPORTUNITY

Would you like to visit the beautiful Ismaili Centre with Marilyn in Burnaby to learn more about its architecture as well as the beliefs and community work of the Ismailis? A friend of Marilyn's is organizing a tour from 1 to 4 pm on October 18th. Please register through Beth at the office by 25th September. If lunch is provided there may be a nominal charge, but it will be delicious– Marilyn knows, she has eaten there! Having done a similar tour in the Spring, it was fascinating. We will be joined there by parishioners from Knox United.

FUNDING TO FIX OUR EXTERIOR WALL - A 'SURPRISE' SUMMER PROJECT

The final cost of this project is above $30,000, so any help with offsetting this necessary work would be greatly appreciated. We have raised just over half of what is needed. Please designate donations for this work to the Building Fund.

BCYAYM FALL CONFERENCE

The British Columbia and Yukon Anglican Youth Movement's Fall Conference will be hosted by St. Philip's this year over the Thanksgiving long weekend. They expect around 75 young Anglicans to be in attendance. We are looking for individuals who would be willing to assist with cooking food for them. A meal plan has been developed, we just need volunteers to prepare the meals. One catch is that due to foodsafe regulations, food cannot be cooked offsite and then brought in, meaning that all food needs to be prepared and cooked at the Church. Pre-Packaged items may be used however to save time (i.e., pre-made lasagna). Food expenses will be fully reimbursed with the submission of receipts.

The Fall Conference will have a Sunday lunch barbecue, to which the entire parish is welcome. Please speak with Janet Brown or Beth Vondette if you are interested in being a chef de cuisine.

WALK FOR RECONCILIATION

Rev. Kim at St. Anslem's is leading a group of participants for the upcoming Reconciliation March on September 24, and you are invited to join. We will meet on the steps of the Cathedral (690 Burrard Street) at 8:45, leaving at 9:10 towards the march marshalling area. You can find Rev. Kim by his parish banner on the steps, and you're invited to bring your parish banner too. Email Rev. Kim at Hkim@stanselms.ca for more information. Please dress for the weather.

NEIGHBOURHOOD MINISTRY

Team 4, Nancy, Pauline, Meera, and I, set off from St. Philip's, provided with lots of packets, sandwiches and fruit and several blankets by Penni Stock and Marian Boyle. We brought along some hard boiled eggs as well. At 4th and Highbury we found T, B, J and M. I believe only J is still outdoors, and was happy to take a blanket. M has found housing recently. Everyone was happy to take some food.

We went down by the Hostel, but no one was on the porch there. The area where A used to stay at the substation is now completely fenced off.

At Locarno Beach at the concession stand we found A. He did not have any visible food, and was under a tarp that looked quite thin. But he declined all our offers of food and blankets. Very quiet as usual.

We did not find anyone at Jericho Beach.

At 4th and Vine, on the SW corner just in front of Shoppers there was a tent. R and J were inside. They were happy to take food and a blanket. We told them about the Kits showers as a place for help with housing applications. Across on the NE corner we found P at his usual spot selling the Megaphone Magazine. Further along in front of Whole Foods we found T. He lives in a nearby apartment but is often panhandling and always happy to receive food.

Continuing along to the Granville area we found J relaxing in the little park by the Vancouver School Board building. He seemed in good spirits. Was happy to take food. He says he has several different places he stays in Kerrisdale, so I gather couch surfing. On the SE corner of Broadway and Granville we found a couple resting on their packs. They were F and A. A is First Nations. They were quite chatty, and happy to take food. They are homeless and would like to find housing. We told them about Kits showers. It seems that F would first need help with ID. On the east side of Granville at 10th we found S. Shortly he was joined by G. They were not too talkative this morning, but as usual grateful for food, especially peanut butter and jam sandwiches.

On Broadway in front of London Drugs we found N, new to me. A middle aged man who took food but didn't encourage conversation.

On Broadway at Macdonald in front of Safeway we found S. As usual he took only a selection from the packet. Still living outdoors but says he has been working on applications.

In front of the former Hollywood Theatre we found J. By then we were out of packets, but gave him a sandwich and bananas. He is homeless. We told him about Kits showers as a place to get help with applications.

Altogether a good outing with lots of people to visit and very pleasant weather.
